

Now you can be Your-Name@ncows.org

ONE of the features of our new & improved website is the ability to offer members their very own custom NCOWS email addresses. Instead of some drab non-descript random series of letters & numbers issued by your internet service provider you can now send & receive email as YourName@ncows.org, ncows5635@ncows.org or whatever you choose. Well, whatever you choose within the limits of good taste. NCOWS reserves the right to refuse any address that would be inappropriate or reflect poorly on the organization. You won't need to perform any fancy technical hoo-haw to get your messages; they will be conveniently, securely & automatically routed to your current email address without any extra effort or loss of privacy. This service is available to current & valid NCOWS members only. The first address is only $10/year; additional addresses routed to the same ISP account are only $5. To simplify our bookkeeping these will always renew on the date of the annual convention, regardless of when payment is first made. Any questions email TheShootist@ncows.org Please very legibly fill out this form and mail with payment payable to NCOWS to:
